Reasons/basis

This notification relates to a Decision to prosecute before the Solicitors Disciplinary Tribunal. This is an independent Tribunal which will reach its own decision after considering all the evidence, including any evidence put forward by the Solicitor. The Tribunal has certified that there is a case to answer in respect of allegations which are or include that, whilst in practice as a solicitor at Pishon Gold Limited:-

Whilst acting for the seller in a conveyancing transaction, she breached an undertaking to discharge the charges against the property upon completion.

It is also alleged that she provided inaccurate and or misleading information to her client, the buyer's solicitor, and the SRA in relation to the discharge of those charges and that she failed to cooperate fully with the SRA's investigation.

The allegations are subject to a Hearing before the Solicitors Disciplinary Tribunal and are as yet unproven.
