Find out more about Legal Ombudsman scheme rules changes

06 April 2023

Changes to the Legal Ombudsman's (LeO's) scheme rules came into effect on 1 April.

These could affect you and the way you work, especially in relation to the quality of service you provide to clients.

LeO has therefore produced a range of resources to outline how this might now impact on you and your business.

[centre/news/updated-scheme-rules-faqs-april-2023/\]](https://www.legalombudsman.org.uk/information-centre/news/updated-scheme-rules-faqs-april-2023/): this is an updated version of the existing scheme rules FAQs, but includes information relating to the application of the amended rules. This is for complaints received on or after 1 April, and also includes some case studies to illustrate the guidance provided.

Alongside this work, LeO has also developed a one-page consumer leaflet outlining how and when it can help. This is to make sure consumers contact it at the right time - after a service provider has had a chance to address their complaint.

The leaflet is available to download from its website in English and Welsh. Service providers are responsible for meeting any additional accessibility needs their individual customers may have.

It has also set up a dedicated email address for enquiries relating to the new Scheme Rules: Anyone that has any queries regarding the changes or if they would like to talk to one an Ombudsman about the application of the new rules they can email SRenquiries@legalombudsman.org.uk [\[mailto:SRenquiries@legalombudsman.org.uk\]](mailto:SRenquiries@legalombudsman.org.uk).
