Is there a genuine firm or person?

The SRA authorises and regulates a genuine firm of solicitors called Summerfield Browne Solicitors Limited. Emails from the genuine firm use the domain '@summerfieldbrowne.com'.

The SRA also authorises and regulates a genuine solicitor called Rafael Singer who is a consultant solicitor with Summerfield Browne Solicitors Limited.

The genuine firm has confirmed that neither it, nor Rafael Singer have any connection to the emails referred to above.

What should I do?

When a firm's or individual's identity has been copied exactly (or cloned), due diligence is necessary. If you receive correspondence claiming to be from the above firm(s) or individual(s), or information of a similar nature to that described, you should conduct your own due diligence by checking the authenticity of the correspondence by contacting the law firm directly by reliable and established means. You can contact the SRA to find out if individuals or firms are regulated and authorised by the SRA and verify an individual's or firm's practising details. Other verification methods, such as checking public records (e.g. telephone directories and company records) may be required in other circumstances.
