Warning: Stamped documents misusing the name of Naylor Solicitors LLP

8 May 2025

Lease agreements misusing the name of Naylor Solicitors LLP.

What is the scam?

Documents have been stamped misusing the name of a genuine firm of solicitors. The SRA understands that the documents were sent to energy companies.

The documents include lease agreements that have been provided to request a change of tenancy.

The stamp used on the documents seen by the SRA misuse the name and address of a genuine firm (see below). The false stamp carries the full name of the firm in larger letters at the top of the stamp.

Is there a genuine firm or person?

The SRA authorises and regulates a genuine firm of solicitors called Naylor Solicitors LLP. The genuine firm's address is Warwick House, 25-27 Buckingham Palace Road, London, SW1W 0PP.

The genuine firm's website is www.naylorllp.co.uk.

The genuine firm Naylor Solicitors LLP has confirmed that their genuine stamp has the word Naylor in capital letters at the top, in the same style as the firm's logo on its website, and they do not have any genuine connection to the stamp or documents referred to in the above alert.

What should I do?

When a firm's or individual's identity has been copied exactly (or cloned), due diligence is necessary. If you receive correspondence claiming to be from the above firm(s) or individual(s), or information of a similar nature to that described, you should conduct your own due diligence by checking the authenticity of the correspondence by contacting the law firm directly by reliable and established means. You can contact the SRA to find out if individuals or firms are regulated and authorised by the SRA and verify an individual's or firm's practising details. Other verification methods, such as checking public records (e.g. telephone directories and company records) may be required in other circumstances.
